

Late Registration & Overrides

Self service registration (web and phone) will be available until the end of the first week of the course unless a more restrictive time limitation has been established for the course section. Walk-in registration may be available until census as long as the necessary approvals are obtained. Individual colleges will develop procedures for obtaining approvals for late registration. Registration after Census will not be permitted due to COF restrictions.